

The Ministry of Labour and Small Enterprise Development

CARIBBEAN SEASONAL AGRICULTURAL WORKER PROGRAMME IN CANADA

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Applications are invited from citizens of Trinidad and Tobago who are desirous of being considered for recruitment under the Caribbean Seasonal Agricultural Worker Programme

1. It is anticipated that workers from the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago will be required for seasonal employment in Canada. The Ministry of Labour and Small Enterprise Development will be considering suitably qualified persons between the ages of 21 to 45 for possible employment.
2. This is an agricultural programme which requires considerable bending and stooping and is for unemployed persons who are capable of strenuous work over long hours. The work will consist mainly of, but will not necessarily be restricted to, reaping of agricultural crops, fieldwork and the packing and storing of crops. Some work may also be available in food processing plants.
3. Persons who have agricultural experience/training or are actively engaged in agriculture and are prepared to work in what may be at times extremely cold conditions, will be considered. Successful applicants will have to pass a thorough security check and medical examination including blood, urine and other tests.
4. Persons selected to travel will be required to meet their own non-refundable visa/work permit cost of $155.00 (CAN) / $800.00 (TTD)

5. Citizens who desire to be considered for recruitment under this programme should submit handwritten applications by DECEMBER 21st, 2016 to:

The Permanent Secretary
